1. Two-team tie-break scenario

A. Results of head-to-head competition during the regular season. If that does not break tie refer to B.

B. Each team's record vs. the team occupying the highest position in the final regular standings, and then continuing down through the standings (Through the top two teams) until one team gains an advantage. If tie remains unbroken then refer to C.

C. Run differential between the tied teams. The team with the best differential gets the higher seed.

If both teams remain tied at this point, the higher seed will be decided by a coin toss conducted by the NNLL Board of Directors.

2. Multiple-team tie-break scenario

A. Results of collective head-to-head competition during the regular season among the tied teams. If tie is not broken at this point proceed to B.

B. If more than two teams are still tied, each of the tied team's record vs. the team occupying the highest position in the final regular season standings, and then continuing down through the top three teams in the standings until one team gains an advantage. If tie is not broken at this point proceed to C.

C. Run differential between the tied teams. The team with the best differential gets the higher seed. Followed in order by the remaining teams.

If two or more teams remain tied at this point, the higher seed will be decided by a coin toss conducted by the NNLL Board of Directors.
