

Fieldhouse Coaches' Code of Conduct

In order to ensure that the principles of sportsmanship, fair play, skill development, and mutual respect among players, coaches, and spectators are the primary considerations governing competition, the following Code of Conduct has been established.

Each coach will ensure that his/her conduct sets the example for team members and spectators. To satisfactorily meet these responsibilities, the coach is expected to:

1. Know the rules and abide by them.
2. Instruct team members in the rules and coach his/her team in such a way as to motivate each player to always compete according to the rules.
3. Respect the referees and refrain from questioning their decisions in a disrespectful or abusive manner.
4. Ensure that all facility rules and regulations are followed by the players and spectators.
5. Ensure that fans of his/her team always conduct themselves with sportsmanship and maturity while in attendance at game sites; assist the referees in maintaining control of spectators during the games.
6. Respect the coaches and players and of the opposing team both during the play of the game and at its conclusion, win or lose.
7. Maintain control of his/her emotions and avoid actions, language, and/or gestures which may be interpreted as hostile and humiliating.
8. Instruct assistant coaches in their responsibilities in accordance with established rules and procedures.
9. I will provide a sports environment for my team that is free of drugs, tobacco, and alcohol, and I will refrain from their use at all youth sports events.
10. I will abide by all facility rules and policies and understand that the failure to do so could result in suspension from the facility and/or programs.
