

2024-2025 YCBAA Rules & Regulations

Article 1– Inclement Weather Policy / Cancellation Policy

1. If York County is under a “winter storm warning” at any point during the day, all the YCBAA games will be canceled.
2. If school is canceled or dismissed early due to weather conditions all YCBAA games at that location will be canceled.
3. If a team fails to show for a game that has not been canceled they will be responsible for the entire game fees and they will need to be paid to the YCBAA within seven days.

Article 2 -- Scorebook

1. The home team is responsible for a timekeeper, game ball and first aid kit. Both teams are responsible for a scorekeeper, but the home team is the official book. The timekeeper and scorekeeper must sit together during the game (this is a must do, scorebooks will be at the table)

Article 3 – Coaches Responsibilities

1. Head coaches may stand during the game. Assistant coaches must remain seated unless calling a timeout or giving instructions to their team but must be seated directly after instructions have been given.
2. Be sure players check in to the scorer's table and wait until the referee tells them to enter the game.
3. To supervise the conduct of their team at all times.
4. To have their team ready to play at the designated time.
5. To properly fill out the scorebook listing all players' correct name and numbers; listing team name, proper league, and division. First initial and full last name must be used in the scorebook.
6. Both the home and the away team will be responsible for reporting their team scores using the TeamSideline link that they will get after the game has ended.
7. Coaches are allowed to call time out from the sidelines.
8. To disallow unsolicited spectator assistance.
9. Forfeited games – no fees will be paid at the time of the forfeit. The winning coach will contact his/her coordinator who will in turn report this forfeit to the league. The officials of that game will report the forfeit to the Referee Coordinator, who will also report this to the league, who will in return issue a check to those officials. After which the forfeiting area will then be invoiced for those fees. The organization with the forfeiting team will reimburse YCBAA within thirty (30) days; or before playoffs.
10. Games where Cheerleaders perform during halftime will be as follows: a. The Cheerleaders will get three (3) minutes to perform (not to exceed (3) three minutes, time out for the players will then begin at the end of their performance. b. It is recommended that all Cheerleaders remain on the bench or in the end zones during the game.

11. Coaches will be responsible for holding a pre-game meeting with the officials/home and away teams prior to the start of the game to discuss age group and any special rules/concerns prior to the start of the game.

12. Coaches will be required to sign the YCBAA "Coaches Code of Ethics" before the game season begins. All signed forms will be turned into the YCBAA.
